MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT

: CIA/NRO Problems

- 1. The attached papers on CIA/NRO problems were developed during the last four days in preparation for the meeting with Mr. Gilpatric and Dr. McMillan which was to have taken place today at three.
- 2. Although this meeting has now been postponed, these papers are very revealing in that the authors were encouraged to let their hair down and address themselves to the total relationship problem. These are being provided to you following our conversation indicating your desire to have them.

is no question of a contractual project for Rughes. Just such personal services we may want to engage. In the works for Pat advisors and consultants to the Agency many times. Only they are sware of this intelligence implication and can be counted on to be cooperative in virtually any way we would want.

The particular thing seeded now is, I believe, a decision as to whether this idea should be pursued further and if so to what extent de we need decision and/or Hughes assistance. I think there can be no argument but that the problems against which this would be a contribution are important and semething needs to be done. The question is does this offer good promise and, if so, shouldn't we get cracking.
